HOW NOT TO PRAY

This booklet belongs to _____

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

Some people thought that they were very good and looked _____ on everyone else.

Jesus told this story to _____ them: "There was a _____ and a tax collector. Both went to pray at the _____. The Pharisee stood alone, away from the _____ collector. When the Pharisee prayed, he said, '_____, thank you that I'm not as _____ as other people. I'm not like men who steal, _____, or take part in adultery. I _____ you that I am _____ than this tax collector. I give up eating _____ a week, and I give one-tenth of everything I _____!'

"The tax collector stood at a _____. When praying, he would not even look _____ to heaven. He beat on his chest _____ he was so sad. He said, 'God, have mercy on me. I'm a _____!'

When this man went _____, he was right with God. But the Pharisee was not _____ with God. Everyone who makes himself _____ will be made humble. But everyone who makes himself _____ will be made great.
